

Bandai Namco Entertainment & FromSoftware collaboration

ships 2 million units worldwide on day of release!

Bandai Namco Entertainment Inc. (Headquarters: Minato-ku, Tokyo; President & CEO: Nao Udagawa) and FromSoftware, Inc. (Headquarters: Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo; President: Hidetaka Miyazaki) announced that their new title “ELDEN RING NIGHTREIGN,” a spinoff of joint developed action RPG “ELDEN RING” (published by FromSoftware in Japan and by Bandai Namco Entertainment in overseas territories), has shipped over 2 million units (*1) worldwide on the day of its release.

“NIGHTREIGN” is a co-operative action survival game in which you join forces with other players and face increasingly overwhelming situations. While inheriting elements from “ELDEN RING” such as a selection of enemies and weapons, the game design of “NIGHTREIGN” has been overhauled for a fresh and exhilarating experience. As with “ELDEN RING,” this title combines the development capabilities of FromSoftware and the overseas networking and marketing power of Bandai Namco, shipping over 2 million units on the day of its release, Friday 30th May 2025.

Bandai Namco Entertainment and FromSoftware extend their sincerest thanks to players across the globe, and aim to provide quality content that can be heartily enjoyed for a long time to come.
