KADOKAWA Group's Appeal

-- Capability of Implementing Media Mix Strategy --

Maximizing its value by not only creating new entertainment content but also driving the implementation of “Media Mix Strategy” (rolling out content via diverse media centered in publication, video, and game) on its own

- Example of media mix strategy: Re: ZERO - Starting Life in Another World -

The value of owned IP, including its archives, is growing as it connects with more users on a global scale through digitalization.

KADOKAWA Group's international net sales

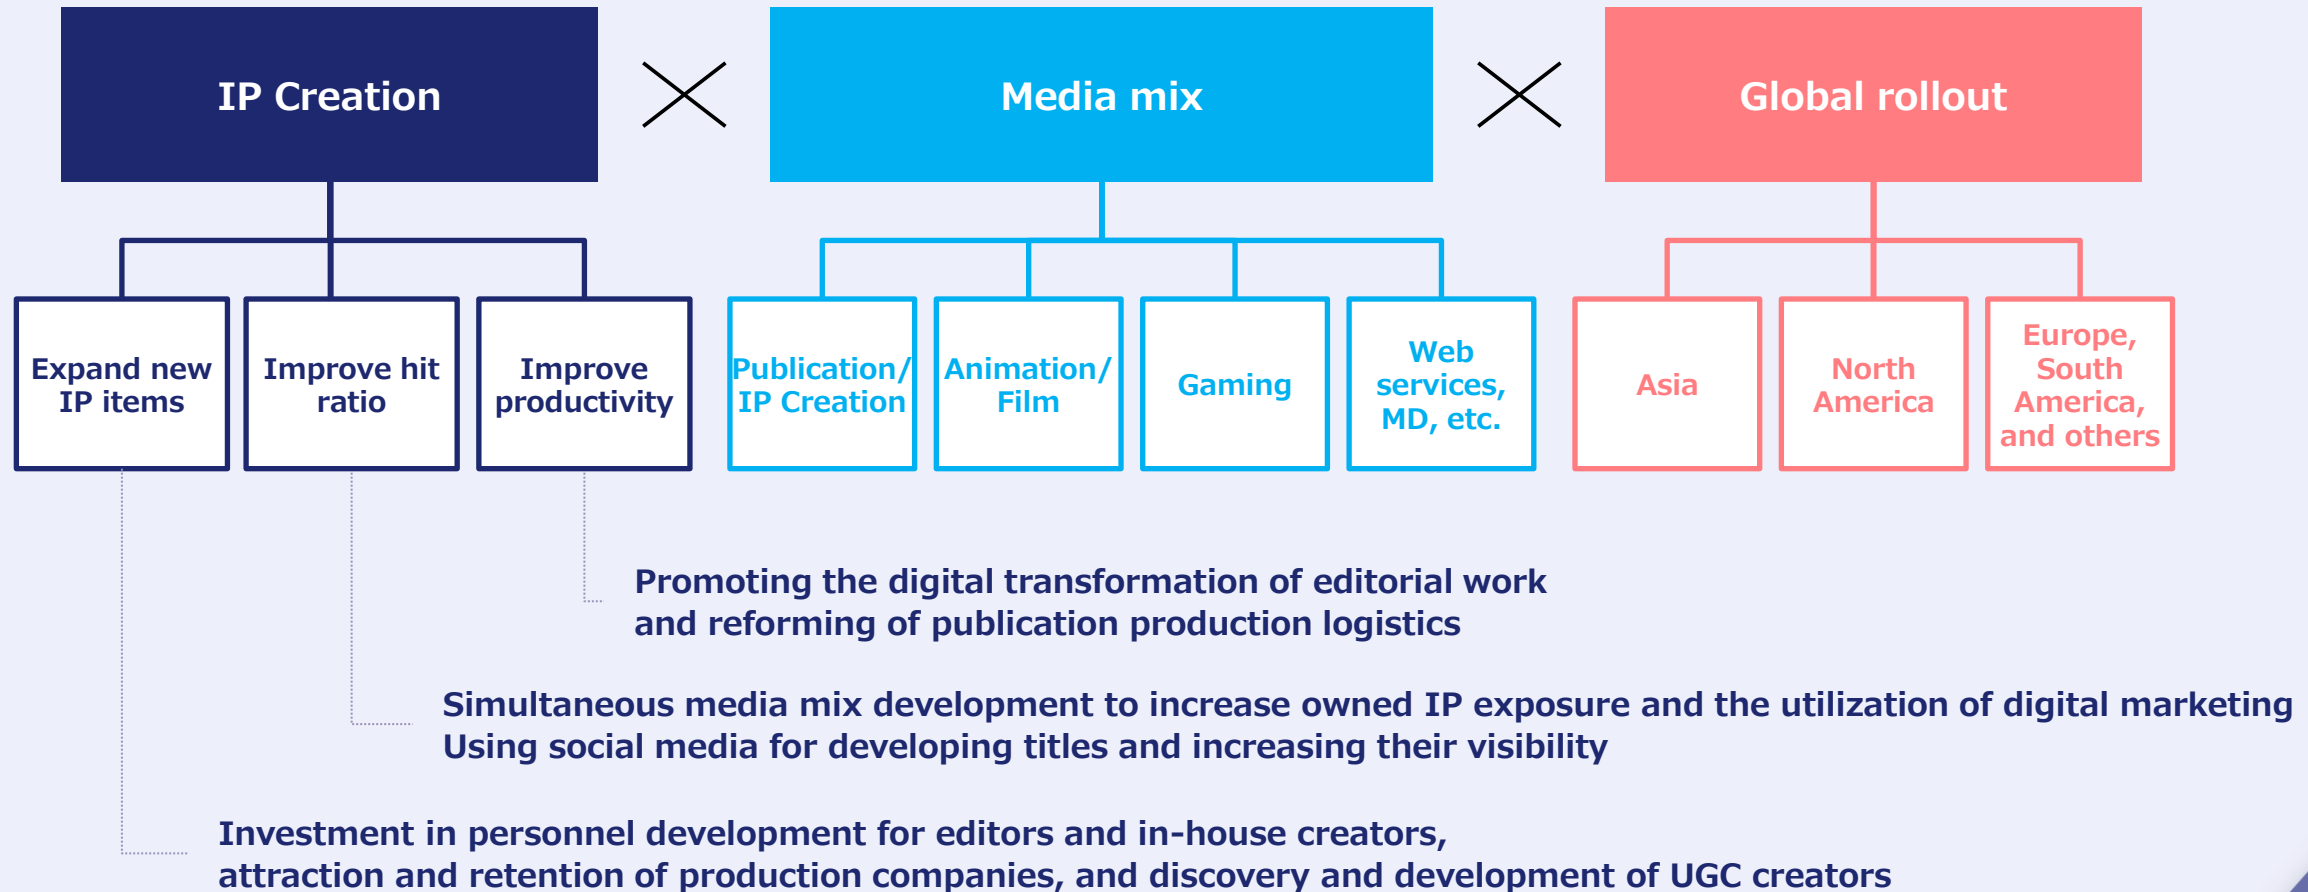

KADOKAWA Group's Basic Strategy

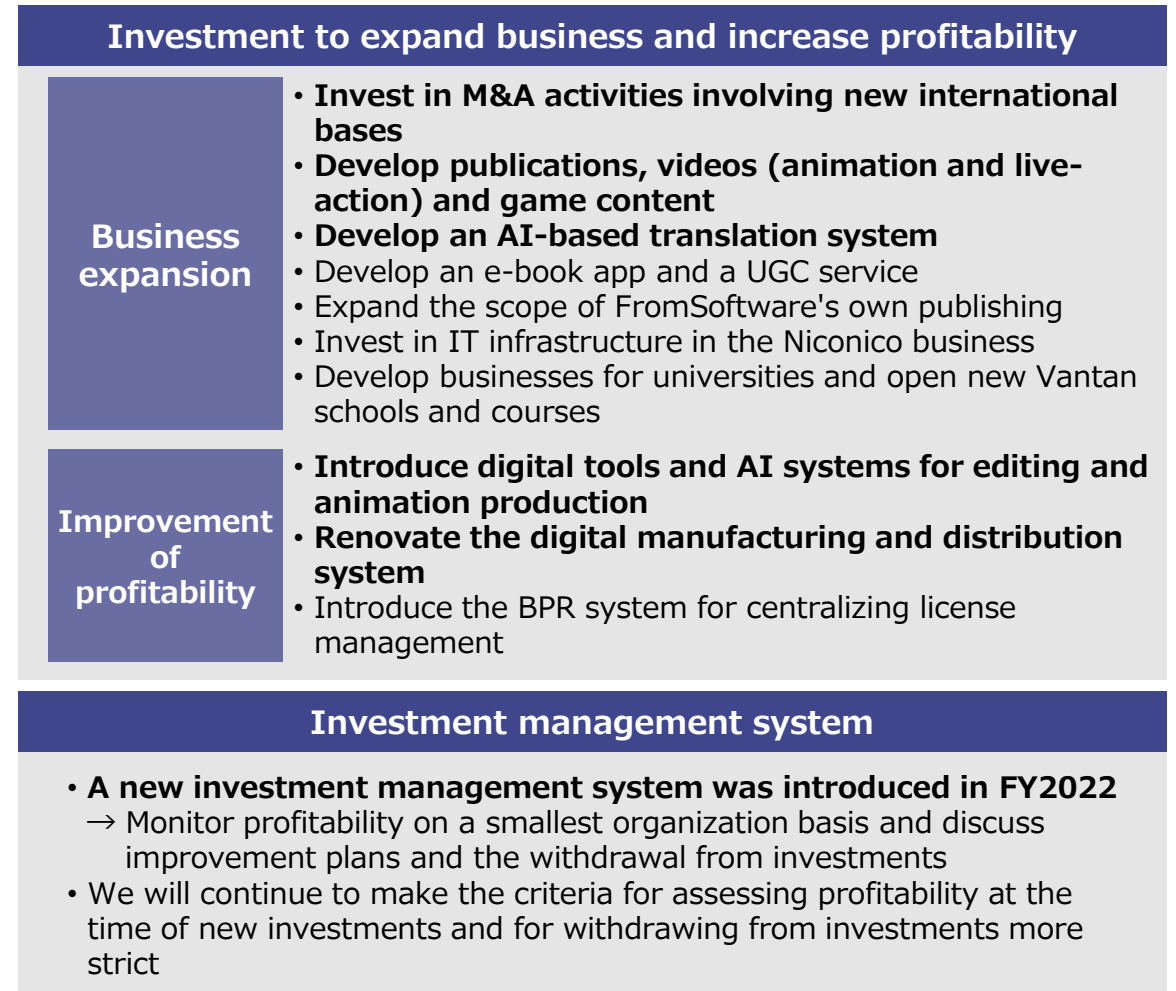

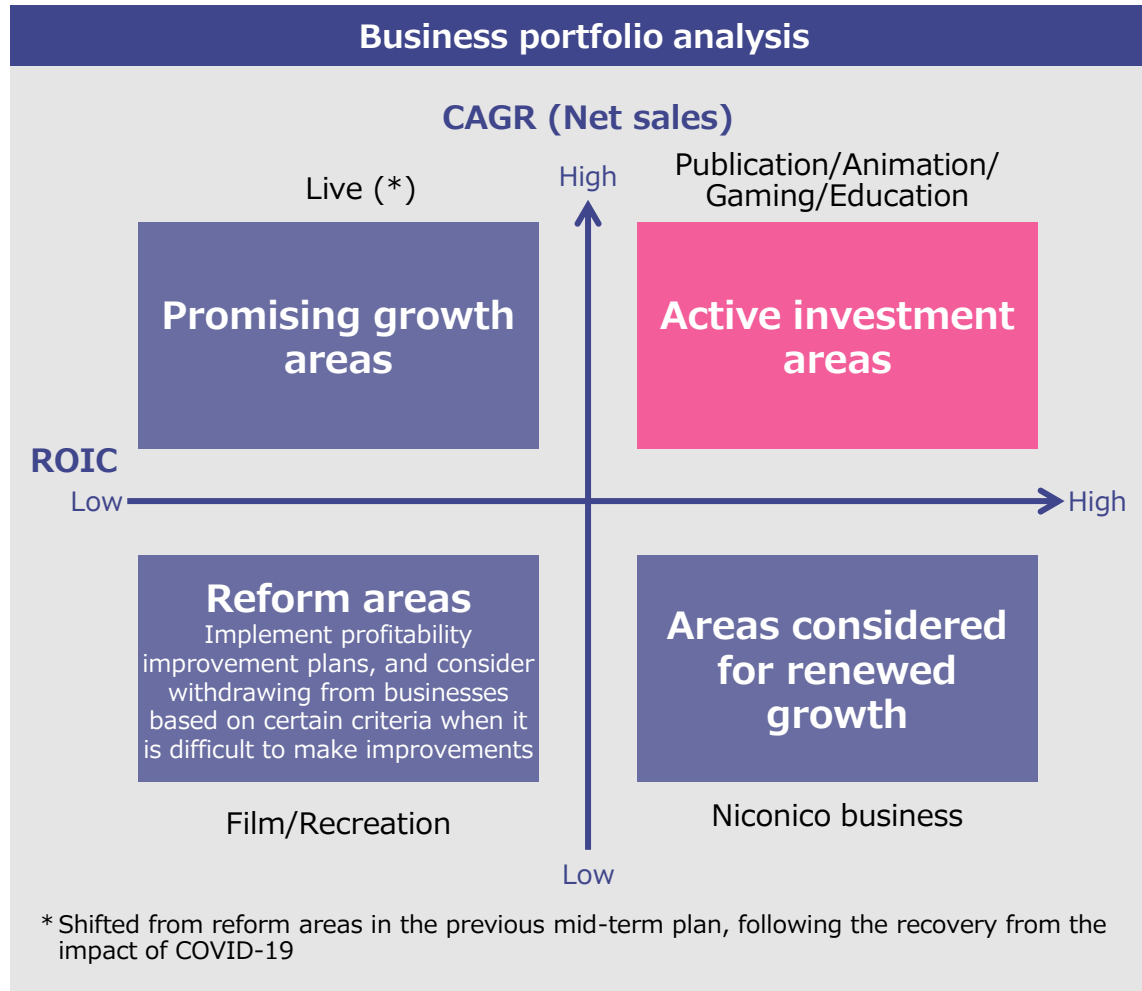

-- Growth Model Starting from IP Creation --

- We remain focused on media mix of owned IP, mainly publishing, video, and gaming while the effective use of rights licensing to other companies to maximize profits. The global expansion of owned IP is further accelerated by the power of technology.
- Users experience the world of fusion of the real and digital through the content.

Global Media Mix with Technology

- Strengthen investments in content development and technology utilization with a focus on active investment areas
- Make the profitability assessment and withdrawal criteria more strict by, for example, introducing a new investment management system

Basic approach

Execution of financial strategies that contribute to sustainable growth of sales and profit, capital efficiency that exceeds the cost of capital, and the medium- to long-term increase of corporate value

Basic policy
Key KPIs

Ensure financial soundness

A capital adequacy ratio ranging between around 50% and 60% should be considered to be the proper standard that should be maintained going forward.

Pursue capital efficiency and strengthen shareholder returns

Aim to achieve an ROE of at least 12% in the medium-to-long-term

Allocation of funds

Foundation funds

Set the level of cash and cash equivalents to be retained based on approximately 2.5 months of monthly sales, working capital, future capital needs, etc.

Growth investments

Assume a maximum investment of about 2/3 of operating cash flow by making the strategic facilitation of core businesses and growth investments such as M&A activities the top priority.

Shareholder return

Shareholder dividend
Seek to achieve a payout ratio of 30% or more and set a lower limit of 30 yen per share for the annual dividend

Acquisition of treasury stock
Flexible implementation in consideration of investment capacity, stock price level, etc.

02

Trends in Results

Business model of the Publication/IP Creation

Market environment & Our strengths

Market environment of paper-based books

- The domestic market has been contracting, partly reflecting the shift to e-books.
- International market is growing as Japanese entertainment content gain more popularity.

Our strengths (paper-based books)

- The capacity to create more than 5,500 titles/year, which is among the largest in Japan.
- More than 130,000 archived titles
- A return rate that is far below the industry average
- Established local subsidiaries in each major region to capture demand driven by the growing popularity of Japanese IP.
- Use of the Company's own UGC* platforms, including Kaku Yomu, for discovering creators

*User Generated Content

Market environment of e-books

- The domestic market is receiving a boost from the shift from paper-based books to e-books. The market is also revitalized by the emergence of a large number of electronic platforms.
- International market still has room to expand.
- There is also the development of new trends, such as vertically scrolling comics, TATESC Comics.

Our strengths (e-books)

- Approx. 160,000 archived titles
- Operating our own platform as well

Related Indicators

Return rates in the market and the KADOKAWA Group

Number of archived paper-based books and e-books from the Group

- The return rate at the Group has long remained far below the market level due to the original DX promotion in production and logistics.
- Continued improvement is expected in the future. (See the next page for details of initiatives.)
- ※ Market data are from Annual Report on the Publication Market 2023 by the All Japan Magazine and Book Publisher's and Editor's Association
- ※ Market data are based on calendar year. Data for the Group are based on fiscal year (April to March).
- ※ One of the factors of the deterioration of the Group's return rates in FY2024 is the temporary impact of the cyberattack.
- The number of paper-based books in archives has been steadily increasing from the current production level of 5,500 titles/year.
- Publication of archived titles as e-books has accelerated as well.

Future Initiatives

Intellectual property creation

Intellectual property rollout

Continuous growth
Profitability improvement

Enhancing the capability of creating content in the Publication Segment

- Reinforcing the foundation for creating new content by increasing editors
- Creating and discovering hit content internationally
- Developing vertically scrolling titles (TATESC Comics)
- Discovering and developing talented creators at the Company's UGC platform
- Improving hit ratio by using big data

Improving the profitability of paper-based books

- Automating order placement, manufacturing and shipping
- Establishing a digital production plant and a distribution facility
- Promoting the introduction of a system for direct order placement and automated tracking from bookstores

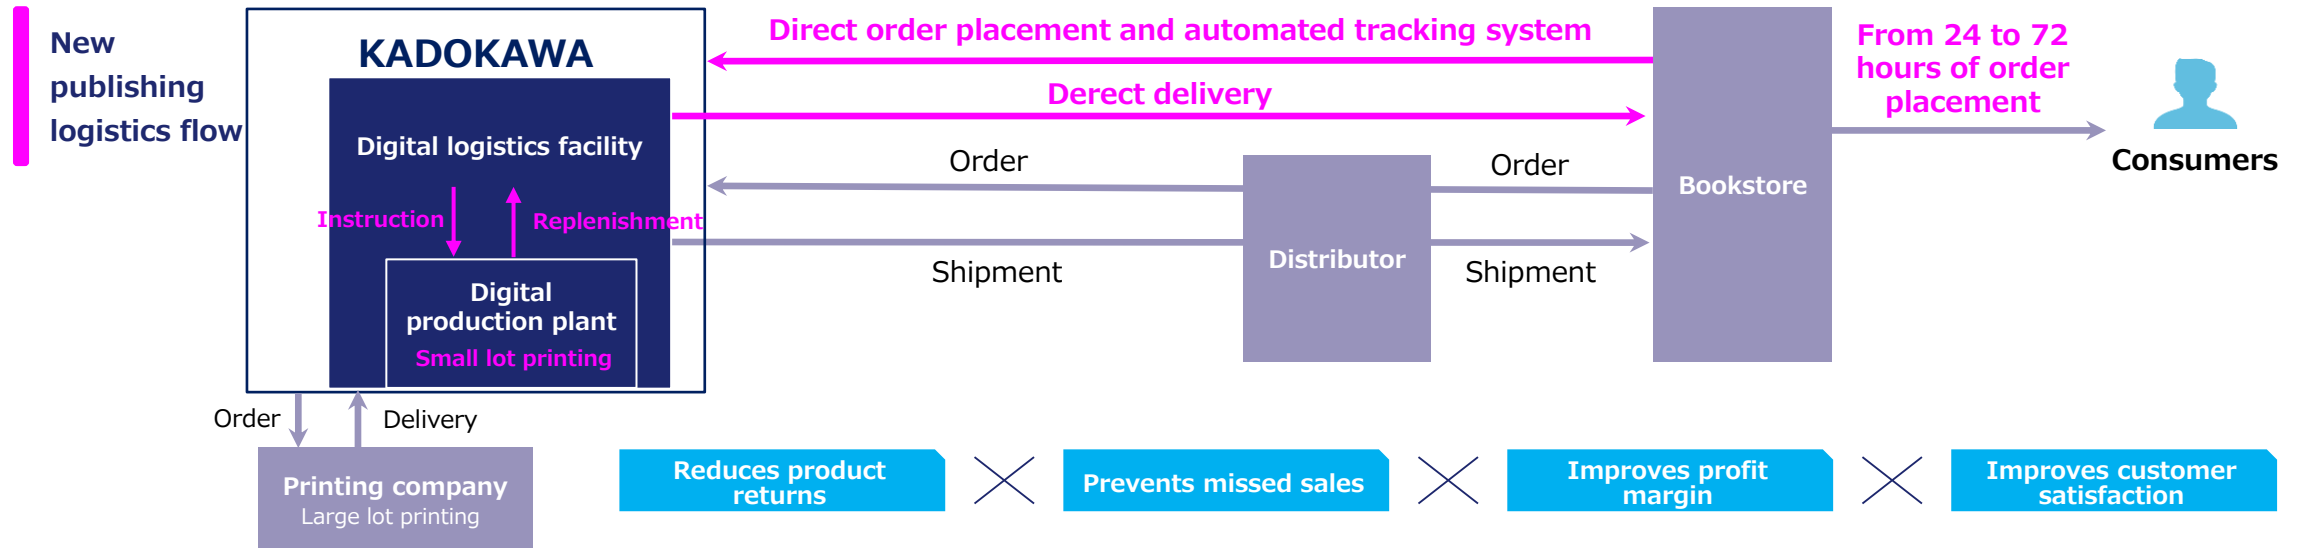

Extending the life of IP in the Publication Segment

- Implementing media mix strategy at an earlier stage
- Animation/game producers' involvement early on, or before publication

International expansion of IP in the Publication Segment

- Increasing the number of publication titles internationally
- Promoting the digital-first strategy
- Enhancing the multilingual translation center
- Enhancing the development of BOOK☆WALKER global store
